

Eleanor Roosevelt

Born - October 11, 1884

Occupation - social worker

Eleanor was the First Lady of the United States. After she left the White House, she served as United States delegate to the United Nations General Assembly and later the head of the U.N. Commission on Human Rights. Her Disney Princess is Aurora who cares for all creatures.

Amelia Earhart

Born - July 24, 1897

Occupation - Pilot

Amelia was the first female aviator to fly solo across the Atlantic Ocean. She also wrote books about her flying experiences and helped create an organization for female pilots.

Her Disney Princess is Merida who follows her heart and breaks the mold.

Mae Jemison

Born - October 17, 1956

Occupation - Astronaut

Mae was the first African American woman to travel in space. She is also a dancer and has several doctorate degrees in science, engineering, letters, and the humanities. Her Disney Princess is Ariel who wants to explore new worlds and is courageous.

Malala Yousafzai

Born - July 12, 1997

Occupation - Activist

Malala is the youngest-ever Nobel Peace Prize winner. She advocates for human rights and for education for women. Her Disney Princess is Mulan who brave and fights for her people.