

Poseidon - God of the Sea

Brother to Zeus and Hades, Poseidon was one of the most important gods. Poseidon carries a three-point spear known as a trident. He used his trident to create earthquakes. He did not get along with other gods.

Athena - Goddess of War

Athena was a daughter of Zeus, her mother was a mortal woman. Athena was a great warrior. She was also the goddess of wisdom and taught people how to think clearly. She was often seen with an owl, which is why owls are a symbol of wisdom.

Zeus - King of the Gods

Zeus was the most powerful god. He ruled over the earth and the sky. He controls the weather. He caused lightning and thunder by throwing his thunderbolts. He was a very wise god.

Aphrodite - Goddess of Love and Beauty

Aphrodite was a daughter of Zeus. She was very beautiful. She enjoyed making people fall in love. The planet Venus is named after her. Eros was her son and is known commonly as cupid.